Senate Bill 128 (Senators Collins and Craig)
(Commission to Revise the Election Code)

Economic and Environmental Affairs

Election Law - Publication Requirements - Constitutional Amendments and Referenda

This proposed constitutional amendment eliminates the publishing requirements of proposed constitutional amendments. Currently, the Maryland Constitution requires that proposed amendments to the Constitution be publicized in at least two newspapers in each county, if available, and in at least three newspapers in Baltimore City once a week for four weeks immediately preceding a general election.

If approved by the voters this constitutional amendment would be effective for all general elections after the November 1998 general election.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: The costs associated with these requirements are borne by the State. The Governor's 1999 proposed budget allocates $46,000 for advertising and publication of election laws and constitutional amendments. If the proposed amendment is approved by the voters, future expenditures could decrease, depending on the alternate method selected by the State Board of Elections to publicize future proposed amendments.

Local Effect: If approved by the General Assembly, this constitutional amendment will be submitted to the voters at the 1998 general election. It should not require additional costs for the county election boards to administer the election.

Small Business Effect: None.
