Senate Bill 238 (Senator Craig. et al.)

Economic and Environmental Affairs

Harford County - School Board - Hearing Examiners - Bar Membership
Optional for Certain Proceedings

This bill enables the Harford County Board of Education to appoint a nonattorney as a hearing examiner for school board disciplinary proceedings involving students who are suspended or expelled from school. The bill takes effect July 1, 1998.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: Potential minimal reduction in Harford County expenditures. Revenues would not be affected.

Small Business Effect: None.

Fiscal Analysis

Local Effect: The Harford County Board of Education conducts between 20 and 25 disciplinary hearings each year. These disciplinary hearings are currently heard by the school board and not by a hearing examiner. However, if the local school board decides to use a hearing examiner in these disciplinary cases, the cost to conduct the hearings would likely be lower if the hearing examiner was a nonattorney. Under current law, the hearing examiner has to be an attorney admitted to practice before the Maryland Court of Appeals. Only the Anne Arundel County Board of Education is authorized to appoint a nonattorney as a hearing examiner.
