Baltimore City - License Renewal - Time and Form of Payment

This bill requires an alcoholic beverages license renewal applicant in Baltimore City to include payment for the renewal with the application. In addition, license fees must be paid in full before a licensee may place a license on deposit with the board. All license fees must be paid by certified check or money order.

Under current law, payment for license fees occurs after an application has been approved. A licensee who places a license on deposit is not required to pay the license fee until the license has been re-acquired. In addition, current law does not specify a method of payment for license fees.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.
