Senate Bill 759 (Prince George's County Senators)

Economic & Environmental Affairs

Elections - Directors and Administrators of County Boards of Elections

This bill provides that the election administrator of the Prince George's County Board of Elections shall be in the exempt service under the Prince George's County personnel system. The bill also specifies that the election director and elections administrator of a local board are subject to the prohibition against participation in certain political activities.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: Exempting the election administrator of the Prince George's County Board of Elections from the Prince George's County personnel system could affect future labor costs for that employee. The magnitude and direction of any potential impact on personnel costs cannot be reliably estimated at this time, but is assumed to be minimal.

Small Business Effect: None.
