House Bill 702 (Delegate McIntosh. et al.)

Commerce and Government Matters

---

State Government - Procurement - Conflict of Interests

---

This bill provides that each invitation for bids or request for proposals for a contract that will involve the selection of a consultant who is to assist a unit of State government in the formation, award, or execution of a contract must require the bidder or offerer to provide an affidavit disclosing any actual or potential conflict of interest of which the bidder or offerer knows or can be reasonably expected to know. The bill requires the Board of Public Works to adopt regulations concerning the disclosure and evaluation of conflicts of interest under the bill. The bill also prohibits a person that employs an individual who assists an executive unit in drafting specifications, invitations for bids, or requests for proposals from submitting a bid or proposal for that procurement or assisting another person in submitting a bid or proposal.
