

Department of Legislative Services
Maryland General Assembly
2000 Session

FISCAL NOTE
Revised

House Bill 1402 (Delegate McClenahan. et al.)

Economic Matters

Private Detective Agencies - Hiring Individuals Not Certified as Private Detectives

This emergency bill allows an individual who is not certified as a private detective to provide private detective services if: (1) the individual is employed or has applied for employment with a licensed private detective agency; (2) the detective agency has submitted the individual's application, fingerprint cards, and applicable fees to the State Police; (3) the individual passes a preliminary background check; and (4) the application has not been denied.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: The change would not materially affect the operations or finances of the State Police.

Local Effect: None.

Small Business Effect: Minimal.

Analysis

Current Law: An individual who wishes to provide private detective services must be fully licensed.

Additional Information

Prior Introductions: None.

Cross File: None.

Information Source(s): State Police, Department of Legislative Services

Fiscal Note History: First Reader - March 10, 2000
drg/jr House Third Reader - March 28, 2000

Analysis by: Brian D. Baugus

Direct Inquiries to:
John Rixey, Coordinating Analyst
(410) 946-5510
(301) 970-5510