FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 513 (Delegate Love. et al.)

Economic Matters

---

Alcoholic Beverages - Brewed Products - Advertising Signs

---

This bill increases to $150 the value of an advertising sign that a brewer, nonresident dealer, or beer wholesaler may provide to a retail alcoholic beverages licensee. However, a sign manufactured by a beer wholesaler may not be over $50 in value.

---

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: Any additional monitoring of advertising signs could be handled with the existing resources of the Comptroller's Office.

Local Effect: None. The Comptroller's Office would enforce the bill's provisions.

Small Business Effect: Minimal.

Analysis

Current Law: A brewer, nonresident dealer, or beer wholesaler may not furnish an advertising sign over $50 in value to a retail alcoholic beverages licensee.

Additional Information

Prior Introductions: Cross filed bills introduced in the 1999 session, HB 571/SB 636, would have increased the acceptable value of alcoholic beverage advertising signs to $250. The bills received unfavorable reports from the House Economic Matters Committee and the Senate Economic and Environmental Affairs Committee, respectively.

Cross File: SB 253 (Senator Bromwell) - Economic and Environmental Affairs.
