FISCAL NOTE

Senate Bill 166 (Senator Haines. et al.)

Economic and Environmental Affairs

Alcoholic Beverages - Class A Licensees - Lottery Ticket Terminal Operators

This bill permits a person 18 years of age or older to operate a lottery ticket terminal at a licensed Class A alcoholic beverages distributor.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None. The bill would not directly affect governmental finances.

Local Effect: None.

Small Business Effect: Potential minimal.

Analysis

Current Law: The laws regarding the age at which individuals are permitted to perform different tasks at Class A licensed establishments vary from county to county. No current provisions designate an age at which an individual working for or hired by a Class A licensee may operate a lottery ticket terminal. Regardless of the venue, a person under the age of 18 may not buy, sell, or cash lottery tickets.
