Property and Casualty Insurers - Requests for Data by Commissioner

This bill authorizes the Insurance Commissioner to request by bulletin from a property and casualty insurer data that relate to policies written by the insurer. Each request must specify the line of insurance and the time period involved. A request expires two years after the date of the request, and can be reissued. The Commissioner must notify an insurer if the Commissioner receives a request to inspect company-specific data. An insurer may show that requested data are confidential commercial data or are otherwise protected from disclosure under the Public Information Act.
