House Bill 522 (Delegate Hubbard)

Environmental Matters

Economic and Environmental Affairs

State Board of Professional Counselors and Therapists

This bill authorizes the Board of Professional Counselors and Therapists to adopt regulations that authorize a “licensed graduate marriage and family therapist” and a “licensed graduate professional counselor” to practice marriage and family therapy or professional counseling if the individual: (1) is of good moral character; and (2) is at least 18 years old. An individual may practice such counseling without licensure for a limited period of time if the individual: (1) has passed the national professional counselor examination approved by the State Board of Professional Counselors and Therapists; (2) is working under the supervision of a licensed practitioner; (3) is fulfilling experiential requirements for licensure; and (4) has a master’s or doctoral degree in a professional counseling or marriage and family field that meets specified educational requirements. An individual who has been approved by the board may represent to the public that the individual is approved to practice and may use the appropriate corresponding titles and initials.
