FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 875 (Delegate Doory, et al.)
Commerce and Government Matters

Credit Cards - Solicitations to Students - Guidelines - Maryland Higher Education Commission

This bill requires the Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC) to establish and update written guidelines concerning the solicitation of students by credit card issuers on campuses of higher education institutions. The bill provides that it may not be construed to require a higher education institution to permit the solicitation of students by credit card issuers on its campus. If a higher education institution permits the solicitation of students by credit card issuers on its campus, the institution must comply with MHEC's guidelines.
