FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 526 (Delegates Giannetti and Vallario)
Judiciary

Judicial Proceedings

Criminal Procedure - Counterfeiting, Forgery, and Credit Card Offenses - Concurrent Jurisdiction of Trial Courts

This bill provides that the District Court and circuit courts have concurrent jurisdiction in felony and misdemeanor cases involving counterfeiting, forgery, and credit card offenses.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: Any expected increase in caseload for the District Court could be handled with existing budgeted resources. Revenues would not be materially affected.

Local Effect: The bill would not have a significant effect on circuit court operations or finances.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: With certain exceptions, the District Court does not have jurisdiction to try a criminal case charging the commission of a felony. Felony cases are generally within the jurisdiction of the circuit courts.

With certain exceptions, the District Court has jurisdiction over common law and statutory misdemeanor cases regardless of the amount of money or value of the property involved, including forgery and uttering cases.

State Fiscal Effect: This bill could result in a shift in cases from the circuit courts to the District Court. The magnitude of such a shift cannot be precisely estimated at this time, but is not expected to be significant.

Additional Information

Prior Introductions: HB 706 of 2001 passed the House with amendments and passed the Senate on second reading with amendments, but no further action was taken.

Cross File: None.
