FISCAL AND POLICY NOTE

House Bill 282
Ways and Means

(Delegates Mitchell and Pendergrass)

Election Law - Fund-Raising Before and After the Legislative Session

This bill prohibits fund-raising by a member of the General Assembly, or a person acting on behalf of a member, outside the member's legislative district or sub-district. The prohibition is in effect from December 31 through the first day of the next following regular legislative session and from the end of the regular legislative session through May 1. An exemption is made for a presiding officer of the General Assembly, who may conduct a single fund-raising event outside the presiding officer's legislative district during the periods of the prohibition.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None. The bill would not affect State operations or finances.

Local Effect: None.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller, and members of the General Assembly, as well as persons acting on behalf of these officeholders, may not engage in fund-raising activities during a regular session of the General Assembly. The fund-raising activities expressly prohibited by current law are (1) receiving campaign contributions; (2) conducting a fund-raising event to receive a campaign contribution; (3) soliciting or selling tickets to a fund-raising event; and (4) depositing, or otherwise using a contribution collected before the session began. Officeholders are subject to the same penalties that the bill provides for candidates.
