FISCAL AND POLICY NOTE

House Bill 625
Judiciary

(Delegate Menes)

Civil Actions - Limitation of Actions - Land Surveyors

This bill reduces the time in which a person may seek recovery for damages incurred for an error in a survey of land from 20 to 10 years after the survey, or within 3 years after the discovery of the error, whichever occurs first.

The bill applies prospectively to cases filed on or after the bill's October 1, 2003 effective date.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: The bill is not expected to have a significant impact on judicial operations or expenditures.

Local Effect: Minimal – see above.

Small Business Effect: The bill would reduce the time period in which certain lawsuits could be brought against surveyors, but its effect on small businesses is expected to be minimal.

Analysis

Current Law: A person may not seek contribution or indemnity for damages incurred for an error in a survey of land unless an action for damages is brought within 20 years of the survey, or within 3 years after the discovery of the error, whichever occurs first.
