FISCAL AND POLICY NOTE

Senate Bill 217 (Senator Kittleman, et al.)
Finance

Education - Certificated Employees - Collective Bargaining - Merit Pay Increases

This bill authorizes a local board of education to offer merit pay increases to teachers without negotiating the increases in the collective bargaining process. Beginning in fiscal 2005, a local board may allocate 5% of the funds budgeted for increases to teachers' salaries for merit pay increases. Merit pay increases are exempted from the matters subject to collective bargaining agreements for certificated public school employees.

The bill is effective July 1, 2003.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: Local school expenditures would not be directly affected. Excluding certain matters from collective bargaining agreements would not affect the overall amount of compensation provided to certificated public school employees.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: The scope of collective bargaining includes all matters that relate to salaries, wages, hours, and other working conditions. Local school boards may provide merit pay increases but only within the scope of their collective bargaining agreements.

Background: The number of local school boards that have provided cost-of-living adjustments and merit increases over the last five fiscal years is shown in Exhibit 1. As shown in the exhibit, most school systems provide merit increases every year. The exhibit also reveals that cost-of-living adjustments for teachers were highest in fiscal 2001 and 2002, when the Governor's Teacher Salary Challenge Program granted State aid incentives to school boards that provided salary enhancements for teachers of at least 5%.

Additional Information

Prior Introductions: Bills that would have eliminated merit pay increases from the scope of collective bargaining have been introduced in the last five legislative sessions. SB 585 of 2002 received an unfavorable report from the Senate Finance Committee. HB 639 of 2001, HB 815 of 1999, and HB 1141 of 1998 received unfavorable reports from the House Ways and Means Committee, and HB 109 of 2000 was withdrawn.

Cross File: None.
