FISCAL AND POLICY NOTE

Senate Bill 718

(Senator McFadden)

Judicial Proceedings

Baltimore City - Real Property - Prerequisites to Recording - Exemptions

This bill provides that the certification requirements for payments of taxes, assessments, and charges before transferring property on the assessment books or records do not apply to deeds transferring property to Baltimore City when the city's treasurer has certified that the conveyance does not impair the security for any public taxes, assessments, and charges due on the remaining property of the grantor.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: The bill will not materially affect the finances or operations of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City.

Local Effect: The bill will not materially affect the finances or operations of Baltimore City.

Small Business Effect: Minimal.

Analysis

Current Law: Generally, property may not be transferred on the assessment books or records until: (1) all public taxes, assessments, and charges due on the property have been paid to the treasurer, tax collector, or director of finance of the county where it is assessed; and (2) all taxes on personal property in the county due by the transferor have been paid when all land owned by the transferor in the county is being transferred. The certificate of the collecting agent showing that all taxes, assessments, and charges have been paid must be endorsed on the deed, and the endorsement is sufficient authority for transfer on the assessment books.

These requirements do not apply to deeds transferring property to a county when the county's controller or treasurer has certified that the conveyance does not impair the security for any public taxes, assessments, and charges due on the remaining property of the grantor in Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Carroll, Frederick, and Washington counties.
