Insurance Producers - Continuing Education Requirements

This bill requires insurance producers who are licensed to sell property and casualty insurance and who sell flood insurance to receive continuing education that directly relates to flood insurance as part of their current continuing education requirements. The new continuing education requirement related to flood insurance must be completed on or before September 30, 2006.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: Enforcement could be handled with the existing resources of the Maryland Insurance Administration (MIA).

Local Effect: None.

Small Business Effect: Minimal.

Analysis

Current Law: Generally, an insurance producer must receive continuing education as a condition of renewing the producer's license every two years. The Maryland Insurance Commissioner may require up to: (1) 16 hours of continuing education per renewal period if the producer has held a license for less than 25 consecutive years; and (2) eight hours if the producer has held a license for 25 or more consecutive years. The continuing education must relate to the kind or subdivision of insurance for which the producer holds a license. An insurance producer who holds a license to sell health insurance and who sells long-term care insurance must receive continuing education that directly relates to long-term care insurance.
