FISCAL AND POLICY NOTE

House Bill 928
Judiciary

(Delegate Petzold, et al.)

Criminal Law - Evidence of Motor Vehicle Theft - Owner's Affidavit

This bill provides that, under certain circumstances, the State may introduce an affidavit by the lawful owner of a motor vehicle involved in a motor vehicle theft case as substantive evidence that the vehicle was taken from the lawful owner and used without the owner's authorization.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: The bill would not materially affect judicial operations or finances.

Local Effect: None – see above.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Bill Summary: The affidavit must be given under oath subject to penalty of perjury and attached to a copy of vehicle's title.

At least 10 days before a proceeding in which the State plans to introduce an affidavit, the State must provide written evidence to the defendant that it intends to: (1) rely on the affidavit; and (2) introduce the affidavit into evidence at the proceeding.

If the defendant files a written demand at least five days before the proceeding, the State must require the presence of the affiant as a prosecution witness at the proceeding.

Current Law: The Sixth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and Article 21 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights grant criminal defendants the right to be confronted with the witnesses against them.

Additional Information

Prior Introductions: None.
