10. Description and Purpose of Project (3000 characters maximum)
This is the continuation of efforts to develop interpretive facilities to complement the park's museum, which is dedicated to telling the story of Benjamin Banneker, "America's first black man of science". This phase of work would involve archeology, design and construction of a replica of Banneker's cabin and homestead. This proposed outdoor interpretive area is integral to educating citizens and school children that visit the park about Banneker's life and times.
