Analysis

Current Law: Chapter 204 of 2003 authorized $12,700,000 for community initiative projects approved by the House of Delegates under the Community Based Regional Initiatives Loan of 2004. In addition, Chapter 204 of 2003 authorized $17,700,000 for community initiative projects under the Legislative Community Initiatives Loan of 2004. Of that, $12,700,000 was for projects initially approved by the Senate and $5,000,000 was for community initiative projects as agreed upon by both houses. Chapter 432 of 2004, the Maryland Consolidated Capital Bond Loan, modified those amounts to $15,200,000 for projects initially approved by the Senate and $2,500,000 for projects initially approved by the House. Of the Senate total, Chapter 432 authorized up to $100,000 in matching funds to the grantee for the acquisition, planning, and design of the Kensington Recreation Center, located in Kensington. The matching funds may include real property.

Background: The building the grantee had originally intended to use for the project is not available. Therefore, the grantee has not moved forward to have its matching fund certified.
