17 include within the definition of discrimination or rebates any of the practices set forth
18 in this section.

19 (b) For a contract of life insurance or an annuity contract, it is not 20 discrimination or a rebate to pay bonuses to policyholders or otherwise abate their 21 premiums wholly or partly out of the surplus accumulated from nonparticipating 22 insurance, if the bonuses or abatement of premiums is fair, equitable to, and in the 23 best interest of policyholders.

24 (c) For policies of life insurance or health insurance issued on the industrial 25 debit, preauthorized check, bank draft, or similar plans, it is not discrimination or a
26 rebate to make an allowance to policyholders who have continuously for a specified
27 period made premium payments directly to an office of the insurer or by preauthorized
28 check, bank draft, or similar plans in an amount that fairly represents the savings in 29 collection expense.

(d) It is not discrimination or a rebate to readjust the rate of premium for a group policy based on the loss or expense experience under the policy, at the end of any policy year, retroactive only for that policy year.

(e) It is not discrimination or a rebate to reduce the premium rate for policies of large amount, if the reduction does not exceed savings in issuance and administrative expenses reasonably attributable to policies of large amount as compared with policies of similar plan issued in smaller amounts.

(f) It is not discrimination or a rebate to issue policies of life insurance or health insurance or annuity contracts on a salary savings or payroll deduction plan or other distribution plan at a reduced rate reasonably commensurate with the savings made by use of the plan.

(g) It is not discrimination or a rebate to issue policies of health insurance that provide for increases in benefits to policyholders who maintain their policies continuously in force without lapse for specified periods.
