10. Description and Purpose of Grantee Organization (3000 characters maximum)
The Montgomery Parks Foundation is a non profit organization dedicated to supporting the Montgomery County public park system by working with the M-NCPPC to identify and fund unmet park and open space initiatives. This public/private partnership allows the Foundation to receive monies from individuals, corporations, foundations ,and government entities to complement public tax monies so that we may preserve, expand, and renovate our County=s outstanding public park system.
11. Description and Purpose of Project (3000 characters maximum)
Woodstock Equestrian Park is one of the few public equestrian facilities located in Montgomery County. The property encompasses 800+ acres of land which was donated to the County in 1999. Woodstock is envisioned to become a premier public equestrian park that will include multiple trails, eventing courses, competition rings and a large indoor arena. Plans are underway for Woodstock to partner with Meadowbrook, an urban equestrian center, to co-sponsor innovative programs for disadvantaged youth and their families including children being treated at the nearby Lombardi Cancer Center. Additionally, therapeutic programs centered around returning injured war veterans and their families are currently in the planning stages.
