10. Description and Purpose of Grantee Organization (3000 characters maximum)
Over its 95-year history, the Junior League of Baltimore (JLB) has trained women to be civic leaders. The JLB has responded to direct service needs in our community, started not-for-profits, advocated on issues impacting women and children, and led non-profit boards on the local, state, and national levels. Whether in the corporate, non-profit, or volunteer arena, the Junior League has consistently developed women's leadership and fiscal acumen while heightening their sense of civic responsibility. With its mission-driven emphasis to train women to serve as community leaders, the JLB is proud that last year its members volunteered over 39,000 hours of community service. Junior League programs and projects: provided direct mentoring to women at risk, increased the self-esteem and literacy of elementary and middle school children, offered the gift of song to the elderly and disabled, and organized special projects that fill community needs in the neighborhoods of Hampden and South Baltimore. With its move to the Govans community, the Junior League is planning to expand its community outreach efforts in this neighborhood after a needs assessment is completed, which will include research and discussion with community and faith-based leaders.

11. Description and Purpose of Project (3000 characters maximum)
The Junior League of Baltimore's Thrift Store capital project will allow the Junior League to build a second floor on its existing Wise Penny Thrift Store, wholly owned and operated by the Junior League, to provide a facility for onsite volunteer training and community projects and to permanently house its member headquarters. This space will allow the Junior League to expand its community initiatives and to provide another community resource space (1,000 square-foot multi-purpose room) for those groups, businesses or associations who need it. Furthermore, the project will enable the JLB to provide much needed updates and renovations to the Wise Penny Thrift Store, which is a critical resource to the local neighbors in need as well as its importance as a source of revenue for the Junior League and its community work.
