Analysis

Current Law: Four official commemorative days and one month are recognized in State law as shown in Exhibit 1. The Governor also must issue a proclamation each year encouraging citizens and other individuals to observe a moment of silence at 3 p.m. on Memorial Day to unite in remembrance and commemorate the heroic acts and efforts of Marylanders who have served and died in the U.S. armed forces.

Background: King Charles I granted Cecelius Calvert, the second Lord Baltimore, a charter for the Maryland Colony on June 20, 1632. On November 22, 1633, the Ark and the Dove sailed for America with almost 200 settlers on board. On March 25, 1634, Lord Calvert and his group of English settlers landed on St. Clement's Island, marking the official origin of Maryland. This year (2007) will mark the 375th anniversary of the granting of the Maryland charter by King Charles I.

Maryland Day is celebrated on March 25 each year to commemorate the landing of the first English settlers.
