FISCAL AND POLICY NOTE

House Bill 22
(Delegate Pendergrass, et al.)
Ways and Means
Video Lottery Terminals - Constitutional Amendment Subject to Voter Approval

This constitutional amendment proposes that the General Assembly can only authorize expanded forms of gambling subject to the following restrictions: - a maximum of 13,000 video lottery terminals (VLTs) may be authorized; • a maximum of six VLT facility licenses may be issued; • each VLT facility may have a maximum of 3,000 VLTs; • at least one VLT license shall be issued in each of the six multi-county regions specified in the bill; • no more than one license may be issued in any county; and • a VLT license may be issued only if a majority of the votes cast in the proposed county were in favor of this proposed amendment.

The constitutional amendment does not apply to currently authorized forms of gambling.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: The proposed constitutional amendment does not provide for regulation of VLTs. To the extent that additional legislation authorizes VLTs in the State, the proposed amendment would limit their number, locations, and size.

Local Effect: It is anticipated that the FY 2009 budgets of local election boards will contain funding for notifying qualified voters about proposed constitutional amendments for the 2008 general election in newspapers or on specimen ballots.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Bill Summary: Subject to the other provisions specified in the bill, no more than one VLT facility license can be issued in each of the following six county regions: (1) Allegany, Frederick, Garrett, and Washington; (2) Baltimore, Carroll, and Harford; (3) Caroline, Cecil, Kent, and Queen Anne's; (4) Dorchester, Somerset, Talbot, Wicomico, and Worcester; (5) Calvert, Charles, Prince George's, and St. Mary's; and (6) Baltimore City, Anne Arundel, Howard, and Montgomery.

Current Law: Specified types of gambling are allowed in Maryland, including the State lottery and wagering on horse racing. Bingo, bazaars, and gaming nights are allowed for some nonprofit organizations on a county-by-county basis. Several counties permit for-profit bingo. In addition, some nonprofit organizations in Eastern Shore counties are allowed to operate up to five slot machines, provided that at least $50 \%$ of the proceeds go to charity. VLTs are not authorized for operation in the State.

Background: Over the past several legislative sessions, various proposals have been introduced to authorize VLTs at the State's horse racing tracks or other tourist destinations in the State.

For more information about VLT gambling, gambling and horseracing in Maryland, and recent legislation regarding VLT gambling, consult the Legislators' Guide to Video Lottery Gambling.

State Fiscal Effect: If the proposed constitutional amendment is approved by the General Assembly and the voters, the State would be limited in the number, locations, and size of VLT facilities that could be authorized. The bill does not provide for VLT regulation and it is assumed that additional legislation would be required.

Local Fiscal Effect: The Maryland Constitution requires that proposed amendments to the constitution be publicized either (1) in at least two newspapers in each county, if available, and in at least three newspapers in Baltimore City once a week for four weeks immediately preceding the general election; or (2) by order of the Governor in a manner provided by law. State law requires local boards of elections to publicize proposed amendments to the constitution either in newspapers or on specimen ballots; local boards of elections are responsible for the costs associated with these requirements. It is anticipated that the fiscal 2009 budgets of local election boards will contain funding for notifying qualified voters about proposed constitutional amendments for the 2008 general election in newspapers or on specimen ballots.
