7 Preamble

8 WHEREAS, The United States Department of Labor estimates a shortage of 9 more than 10,000,000 skilled workers by 2012 throughout the nation; and

10 WHEREAS, 80% of the fastest growing occupations between 2008 and 2014 are 11 expected to be filled by individuals with postsecondary education and training; and

12 WHEREAS, Large numbers of our nation’s adults do not demonstrate sufficient 13 literacy and mathematical skills to fully participate in an increasingly competitive 14 work environment; and

15 WHEREAS, Only one in four adults with less than a high school education 16 currently participates in any kind of education or training; and

17 WHEREAS, Maryland ranks near the bottom in the United States in 18 per-student State spending on adult education; and

19 WHEREAS, In Maryland, there are nearly 750,000 Marylanders with limited 20 literacy skills, no high school diploma, or ineffective English language skills in need of 21 services; and

22 WHEREAS, The 2003–2004 Maryland Adult Education Score Card shows that 23 only 3 percent to 5 percent of Marylanders in need of adult education receive it; and

24 WHEREAS, The adult population in need of additional education is 25 substantially similar to those served by the workforce one-stop system; and

26 WHEREAS, Historically, adult education was in the sole purview of the K–12
27 educational system, but over the past 15 years, there has been an increasing 28 recognition nationally that adult education and workforce development must be better 29 linked; and

30 WHEREAS, There are many different State agencies involved in adult 31 education programming for various groups, but there are insufficient systems of 32 accountability for adult education funding and outcomes; and

33 WHEREAS, Employers are increasingly turning to ex-offenders to address 34 workforce needs, and the correctional system must increase the number of people 35 served by educational programs that lead to job opportunities upon release; and

1 WHEREAS, Current adult education programs in Maryland are not fully 2 progressing students to the posthigh school skill levels necessary to be competitive in 3 our current and future economy; and

4 WHEREAS, Recognizing the importance of linking adult education and 5 workforce creation, a number of states have transferred responsibility for adult
6 education from their K-12 educational systems to state workforce development 7 agencies; and

8 WHEREAS, Maryland requires an adult education system that aligns adult 9 education, career preparation, postsecondary education, and workforce development; 10 now, therefore,
