FISCAL AND POLICY NOTE

House Bill 260
Ways and Means

(Delegate Kaiser, et al.)

---

Recordation Tax - Indemnity Mortgages

---

This bill provides that the recordation tax applies to an “indemnity mortgage” in the same manner as if the guarantor were primarily liable for the guaranteed loan, unless the recordation tax is paid on another instrument of writing that secures the payment of the guaranteed loan. An indemnity mortgage includes any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security interest in real property that secures a guarantee of repayment of a loan for which the guarantor is not primarily liable.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2008.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: Local government revenues could increase by a significant amount depending on the number of transactions occurring each year and the value of each transaction.

Small Business Effect: Minimal.

Analysis

Current Law: Counties and Baltimore City are authorized to impose locally established recordation tax rates on any business or person: (1) conveying title to real property; or (2) creating or giving notice of a security interest (i.e., a lien or encumbrance) in real or personal property, by means of an instrument of writing. Local rates range from $2.20 per $500 in Prince George's County to $6.00 per $500 in Frederick County. Indemnity mortgages, as defined by the bill, are not subject to the recordation tax.

In the 1950s, the General Assembly granted Prince George's County the authority to impose a recordation tax on all deeds of trust, including indemnity mortgages; however, the county has not imposed the tax.

Background: An indemnity mortgage works as follows. A lender agrees to loan money to a borrower on two conditions: (1) that a third party guarantees repayment of the loan; and (2) that the guarantor executes a mortgage on real property to secure the guarantee. An indemnity mortgage is the instrument that manifests the pledge of the property. An indemnity mortgage is recorded so as to establish a lien on the property.

The bill is intended to eliminate a purported tax avoidance transaction in which an entity, in order to avoid recordation tax on a deed of trust, creates a limited liability company (LLC) and has the LLC borrow money with the original entity as the third party guarantor of the debt. In that case, no recordation tax is paid on the LLC borrowing or the third party guarantee.

County governments collected $508.5 million in local recordation taxes in fiscal 2007. This amount is significantly lower than the amounts collected in fiscal 2005 and 2006 when the soaring real estate market yielded recordation taxes totaling $525.4 million in fiscal 2005 and $619.0 million in fiscal 2006. If the current downward trend in the real estate market continues, local recordation taxes could reach a five-year low in fiscal 2008. Local officials are projecting to collect $454.5 million in recordation taxes in fiscal 2008. Exhibit 1 shows the local recordation tax rates and revenue collections for each jurisdiction.

Local Fiscal Effect: The bill could increase local government revenues by a significant amount. However, the amount of the overall increase cannot be reliably estimated and depends on the number of transactions occurring each year and the value of each transaction. Montgomery County estimates that subjecting indemnity mortgages to the recordation tax could increase county revenues by approximately $30 million annually, representing a 30% increase over current collections. Harford County estimates the recordation tax revenues could increase by about $750,000 annually as a result of imposing the tax on indemnity mortgages, representing a 4% increase over current collections.

Additional Information

Prior Introductions: This bill was introduced as HB 409 of 2007 and HB 454 of 2006. The House Ways and Means Committee took no action on either bill.

Cross File: None.
