Prince George's County - Property Tax Credits - Agricultural Land Preservation Programs
PG 421-08

This bill authorizes Prince George's County to grant a property tax credit for agricultural land, including any farm improvement used in connection with an approved agricultural activity, that is subject to a State or county agricultural land preservation program. Property owners who are granted the property tax credit but subsequently withdraw the property from a State or county land preservation program are liable for property taxes that would have otherwise been paid (up to 10 years), including interest and a penalty. The county is authorized to provide, by law, any procedural or enforcement provision necessary to carry out the administration of the tax credit.

The bill takes effect June 1, 2008 and is applicable to all taxable years beginning after June 30, 2008.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: If a property tax credit is granted, Prince George's County property tax revenues could decrease by approximately $11,000 in FY 2009 and $17,600 by FY 2013. Expenditures would not be affected.

Small Business Effect: Potential meaningful.

Analysis

Current Law: Prince George’s County is authorized to grant a number of property tax credits for real property • owned by specified nonprofit community civic associations; • owned by the Piscataway Hills Citizens Association; • that is improved to promote housing, community redevelopment, and business revitalization; • used by the property owner to provide child care for the children of at least 25 employees; • owned or leased by the American Center for Physics; and used only for nonprofit activities relating to the advancement and diffusion of the knowledge of physics and its application to human welfare; • owned by the Kettering-Largo-Mitchellville Boys and Girls Club; and • adversely impacted by its proximity to a refuse disposal system.

The county is required to grant a property tax credit for specified property owned by the Maryland Jaycees, and the Prince George’s County Chamber of Commerce Foundation.

Background: Twelve counties and Baltimore City have either mandatory or optional property tax credits for specified agricultural land as shown in Exhibit 1.

Wicomico	agricultural land and agricultural easements located in an agricultural preservation district (optional)

Local Fiscal Effect: Approximately 1,675 acres of agricultural land in Prince George's County are currently subject to a State or local conservation easement, including the Maryland Agricultural Land Preservation Foundation (MALPF) easements, Maryland Environmental Trust (MET), Rural Legacy, and Prince George's County Soil

Conservation District easements, which could be eligible for the property tax credit proposed by the bill. Land subject to a perpetual agricultural land preservation easement is assessed at $500 per acre or less, depending on whether the land is being farmed. Assuming the maximum assessment of $500 per acre, Prince George’s County property tax revenues could decrease by approximately $11,000 in fiscal 2009 and $17,600 in fiscal 2013, if such a tax credit is granted.

Exhibit 2 shows the estimated effect on Prince George’s County property tax revenues assuming an additional 250 acres of land becomes subject to any of the various State or county conservation easements each year.
