shall withhold from the employee's next earnings the amount of the employee contribution required to enroll the employee's child;

29 (2) if the employee's child is not currently eligible for health insurance 30 coverage but will become eligible, shall withhold from the employee's earnings, at the 31 earliest time the employee's child becomes eligible, the amount of the employee 32 contribution required to enroll the employee's child; or

1 (3) if federal or State withholding limitations or prioritization prevent 2 withholding from the employee's wages the amount required for enrollment, shall 3 complete and send, to the issuing child support agency, the appropriate part of the 4 medical support notice indicating the employee's income is insufficient for enrollment.

5 [(f)] (H) (G) (1) To the extent consistent with the federal Consumer 6 Credit Protection Act, the employer shall deduct the premiums for health insurance 7 coverage from the earnings of the employee on a regular and continuing basis and pay 8 the premiums to the insurer.

9 (2) The employer shall send to the insurer the amount deducted from 10 the employee's earnings each pay period within 10 business days after the day on 11 which the earnings are paid to the employee.

12 [(g)] (1) (1) (H) An employer or the child's parents may not disenroll or 13 eliminate coverage for the child in any manner unless:

14

(1) the employer is provided satisfactory written evidence that:

- 15
- (i) the court order is no longer in effect; or

(ii) the child has been or will be enrolled under other reasonable health insurance coverage, with the coverage to take effect no later than the effective date of disenrollment;

19 (2) the employer has eliminated family health coverage for all of its20 employees; or

(3) the employer no longer employs the parent under whose name the child has been enrolled for coverage except to the extent that if the parent elects to exercise the provisions of the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA) then coverage must be provided for the child consistent with the employer's plan relating to postemployment medical coverage for dependents.

26 [(h)] (J) (K) (I) (1) If the health insurance coverage for the child 27 terminates, the employer shall notify the other parent and, if a support enforcement 28 agency is involved in the case, the support enforcement agency within 15 days of 29 termination of the insurance.

30 (2) If, after a lapse in health insurance coverage, health insurance 31 coverage becomes available to the employee for the child, the employer shall:

32 (i) enroll the child in health insurance coverage without regard 33 to any enrollment season restrictions; and

1 (ii) within 15 days after health insurance coverage becomes 2 available, provide notice to the support enforcement agency and the other parent of 3 the enrollment.

[(i)] (K) (L) (J) Subject to the provisions of this section, the parent or the support enforcement agency may bring a civil action against an employer who willfully violates the provisions of this section.

[(j)] (L) (M) (K) This section does not limit the authority of a court to enter, modify, or enforce an order requiring payment of uninsured health expenses, health care costs, or health insurance premiums.

10 [(k)] (M) (N) (L) An employer may not use the existence of an order or a 11 medical support notice requiring health insurance coverage as a basis for:

- 12 (1) reprisal against an employee;
- 13 (2) dismissal of an employee from employment; or
- 14 (3) refusal to hire a person or to promote an employee.

15 [(1)] (N) (O) (M) An order entered under this section is binding on a present 16 and future employer of the parent on whom a copy of this order is served.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effectOctober 1, 2009.
