The total amount claimed may not exceed $$ 10,000$.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2009 and applies to tax year 2009 and beyond.

Fiscal Summary

Local Effect: Local income tax revenues and local highway user revenues distributed from the TTF decrease by approximately $36,600 annually beginning in FY 2010. Expenditures are not affected.

Small Business Effect: Minimal.

Analysis

Current Law/Background: No similar subtraction modification exists, although businesses can deduct contributions to public schools as charitable donations, which typically lowers federal and State income tax liability.

Exhibit 1 illustrates the existing tax benefits and proposed tax benefit for a contribution for a classroom library that would qualify for the maximum benefit under the bill. A donation of $$ 6,667$ is the maximum amount that will qualify for the maximum $$ 10,000$ subtraction modification.

State Revenues: Subtraction modifications can be claimed beginning in tax year 2009. As a result, general fund revenues and TTF revenues will decrease significantly beginning in fiscal 2010. The bill provides that up to $150 \%$ of the donation can be claimed as a subtraction modification. Exhibit 2 shows the State and local revenue loss depending on the number of donations per elementary school. It is assumed that each donation is for the maximum amount and $75 \%$ of donations are from corporations. For purposes of this fiscal and policy note, it is assumed that a maximum donation of $6,667 is provided at each of the State's 881 public elementary schools.

State Expenditures: The Comptroller's Office reports that it will incur a one-time expenditure increase of $$ 20,700$ in fiscal 2010 to add the subtraction modification to the personal income tax form. This amount includes data processing changes to the SMART income tax return processing and imaging systems and systems testing.

Local Revenues: Local highway user revenues and local income tax revenues will decrease as a result of subtraction modifications claimed against the corporate income tax and personal income tax. Exhibit 2 illustrates the potential local income tax revenues from the bill.

Additional Comments: Local school systems spent approximately $$ 219.1$ million in fiscal 2007 on textbooks and instructional supplies as shown in Exhibit 3. Of this amount, $$ 19.8$ million was used to purchase library media supplies and library books. An additional $$ 55.2$ million was spent on classroom textbooks and $$ 144.1$ million was spent on other classroom supplies and materials. In fiscal 2007, State funding for public schools totaled $$ 4.5$ billion, of which $$ 4.0$ billion went directly to the local school system and $$ 446.1$ million went to fund teachers' retirement payments.
