Senate Bill 416 (Senator Currie)
Budget and Taxation

Maryland Consolidated Capital Bond Loan of 2006 - Prince George's County -
New Revival Center of Renewal - Reauthorization

This bill amends the Maryland Consolidated Capital Bond Loan of 2006 to allow the New Revival Center of Renewal to acquire property in Prince George's County, rather than in the City of Waldorf. The bill also extends the deadline to June 1, 2010, for the grantee to present evidence that a matching fund will be provided.

The bill takes effect June 1, 2009.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: The bill does not directly affect governmental operations or finances

Local Effect: The bill does not directly affect the finances or operations of Prince George's or Charles counties.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: Chapter 46 of 2006 authorized up to $180,000 in matching funds to the County Executive and County Council of Prince George's County for the acquisition of land for the New Revival Center of Renewal in Capitol Heights. The grantee was required to present evidence to the Board of Public Works by June 1, 2008, regarding the status of a matching fund.

Chapter 219 of 2008 repealed the County Executive and County Council of Prince George's County as grantee for the project, and designated the Board of Directors of New Revival Center of Renewal, Inc. as grantee instead. Chapter 219 also changed the location from Capitol Heights to Waldorf and extended the deadline to June 1, 2009, for the grantee to present evidence that a matching fund will be provided.

Background: The New Revival Center of Renewal operates a program to prevent youth from entering the corrections system, reduce recidivism rates, and promote strong families. The center serves at-risk individuals by providing life and job skills training, counseling, and food and clothing.
