Analysis

Current Law: When a vacancy occurs in the office of county commissioner, the Governor must appoint a new commissioner applicable to commission counties and code home rule counties; unless, a code home rule county has enacted a public local law providing other procedures for appointing a new commissioner. Procedures for appointing a new county commissioner, should the position become vacant, are provided in Article 25, Section 16.

Background: There are three forms of county government in Maryland: commission, charter home rule, and code home rule. Exhibit 1 shows the form of government for each Maryland county and the year in which local home rule was granted.
