Maryland Transit Administration - Free Ridership for State Employees

---

This bill requires the Maryland Transit Administration (MTA) to offer the same free transit ridership programs that are offered to Executive Branch employees to employees of the Legislative and Judicial branches of State government.

The bill takes effect June 1, 2011.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: Because use of free transit by Legislative and Judicial branch employees is expected to be minimal, the bill is not expected to materially affect State finances.

Local Effect: None.

Small Business Effect: Minimal.

Analysis

Current Law/Background: Currently, employees of the Executive Branch of State government, among others, may ride on MTA local service (Baltimore area bus, Metro subway, and light rail) at no cost. This fringe benefit, which is not authorized in statute, was established by the Executive Branch approximately 10 years ago. A November 2009 Maryland Department of Transportation report noted that State employees took approximately 1% of the passenger trips on Baltimore area bus, light rail, and Metro subway service in fiscal 2009. The report further conveyed that, if MTA sold monthly passes to each State employee taking free rides, local service revenues would increase by $1.45 million or 1.9% annually.
