Background: Each political party must have a State central committee, which is the governing body of the political party, and central committees may be formed for each county. A State central committee may be composed of the members of the county central committees during their terms in office. The Democratic and Republican parties each have a State central committee (consisting of the members of the county central committees) and 24 county central committees. The county central committees of the Democratic and Republican parties are elected during the gubernatorial primary.
