30 ~~(g) (c) In examining the possibility of establishing a captive insurance industry~~
31 ~~in the State, the Task Force Administration shall:~~

1 (1) study:

2 (i) the models of regulation of captive insurance industries in
3 other states, including the mechanisms for funding those regulatory models;

4 (ii) the potential benefits of hosting a captive insurance industry
5 in the State to different classes of insureds, and the associated costs of captive
6 insurance compared with insurance procured through traditional insurance
7 underwriting and brokerage;

8 (iii) the impact on the State and the domestic insurance
9 industry, both as to the potential expansion of the insurance industry and related
10 professions and activities in the State, and the effect of newly available captive
11 insurance on existing traditional insurance underwriting and brokerage in the State;

12 (iv) the need for different or additional consumer protections and 13 financial controls for customers of captive insurers compared with customers of 14 traditional insurers in the State;

15 (v) the effectiveness, cost, and long-term viability of alternative
16 regulatory or market mechanisms addressing the same or similar markets that have 17 been implemented or are being considered in other states; and

18 (vi) any additional matters the ~~Task Force~~ Administration
19 considers relevant to assessing the possibility of establishing a captive insurance
20 industry in the State; and

21 (2) develop recommendations for whether Maryland should establish a 22 captive insurance industry and, if so, how to establish, promote, and regulate the 23 industry.

24 (h) On or before December 31, 2013, the ~~Task Force~~ Administration shall 25 report on its findings and recommendations, including any recommendations for 26 proposed legislation, to the Governor and, in accordance with § 2-1246 of the State
27 Government Article, the Senate Finance Committee and the House Economic Matters
28 Committee.

29 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect
30 June 1, 2013. ~~It shall remain effective for a period of 1 year and, at the end of May 31,~~
31 ~~2014, with no further action required by the General Assembly, this Act shall be~~
32 ~~abrogated and of no further force and effect.~~
