- 16

Article – Correctional Services

- 17 11–1001.
- 18 (a) In this subtitle the following words have the meanings indicated.

EXPLANATION: CAPITALS INDICATE MATTER ADDED TO EXISTING LAW.

[Brackets] indicate matter deleted from existing law.

Underlining indicates amendments to bill.

Strike out indicates matter stricken from the bill by amendment or deleted from the law by amendment.

1 (b) IN HARFORD COUNTY, "AGENCY" MEANS THE OFFICE OF THE 2 SHERIFF OF HARFORD COUNTY.

3 (C) (1) "Correctional officer" has the meaning stated in § 8–201 of this 4 article.

5 (2) "Correctional officer" does not include an officer who is in 6 probationary status on initial entry into the correctional agency except if an allegation 7 of brutality in the execution of the officer's duties is made against the officer.

8 [(c)] (D) (1) "Hearing" means a proceeding during an investigation 9 conducted by a hearing board to take testimony or receive other evidence.

10 (2) "Hearing" does not include an interrogation at which no testimony 11 is taken under oath.

12 [(d)] (E) "Hearing board" means a board that is authorized by the managing 13 official to hold a hearing on a complaint against a correctional officer.

14 [(e)] (F) "Internal investigation unit" means the internal investigation unit 15 of a correctional facility charged with the investigation of complaints within a 16 correctional facility.

17 (G) IN HARFORD COUNTY, "MANAGING OFFICIAL" MEANS THE SHERIFF 18 OF HARFORD COUNTY.

19 11-1002.

20 This subtitle applies only in Cecil County, Garrett County, HARFORD 21 COUNTY, and St. Mary's County.

22 11–1008.

(a) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection and § 11-1012 of this subtitle, if the investigation or interrogation of a correctional officer results in a recommendation of demotion, dismissal, transfer, loss of pay, reassignment, or similar action that is considered punitive, the correctional officer is entitled to a hearing on the issues by a hearing board before the managing official takes that action.

29 (2) A correctional officer who has been convicted of a felony is not 30 entitled to a hearing under this section.

31 (b) (1) The internal investigation unit shall give notice to the correctional 32 officer of the right to a hearing by a hearing board under this section.

 $\mathbf{2}$

1 (2) The notice required under this subsection shall state the time and 2 place of the hearing and the issues involved.

3 (c) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (4) of this subsection and in § 4 11-1012 of this subtitle, the hearing board authorized under this section shall consist 5 of at least three members who:

6 (i) are appointed by the managing official and chosen from 7 correctional officers within that correctional facility, or from correctional officers of 8 another correctional facility with the approval of the managing official of the other 9 facility; and

10 (ii) have had no part in the investigation or interrogation of the 11 correctional officer.

12 (2) At least one member of the hearing board shall be of the same rank 13 as the correctional officer against whom the complaint is filed.

14(3)(i)THIS PARAGRAPH DOES NOT APPLY IN HARFORD15COUNTY.

16 (II) If the managing official is the correctional officer under 17 investigation, the managing official of another correctional facility in the State shall 18 function as the correctional officer of the same rank on the hearing board.

19 [(ii)] (III) If the managing official of a correctional facility of a 20 county or municipal corporation is under investigation, the official authorized to 21 appoint the managing official's successor shall select the managing official of another 22 correctional facility to function as the correctional officer of the same rank on the 23 hearing board.

24 (4) (i) THIS PARAGRAPH DOES NOT APPLY IN HARFORD 25 COUNTY.

(II) A correctional facility or the facility's superior governmental authority that has recognized and certified an exclusive collective bargaining representative may negotiate with the representative an alternative method of forming a hearing board.

30 [(ii)] (III) A correctional officer may elect the alternative 31 method of forming a hearing board if:

the correctional officer works in a correctional facility described in subparagraph [(i)] (II) of this paragraph; and

1 2.the correctional officer is included in the collective $\mathbf{2}$ bargaining unit. 3 [(iii)] (IV) The internal investigation unit shall notify the 4 correctional officer in writing before a hearing board is formed that the correctional $\mathbf{5}$ officer may elect an alternative method of forming a hearing board if one has been 6 negotiated under this paragraph. 7If the correctional officer elects the alternative (iv)] (V) 8 method, that method shall be used to form the hearing board. 9 [(v)] (VI) A correctional facility or exclusive collective 10 bargaining representative may not require a correctional officer to elect an alternative 11 method of forming a hearing board. 12(vi) (VII) If the correctional officer has been offered summary 13punishment, an alternative method of forming a hearing board may not be used. 14 (vii)] (VIII) This paragraph is not subject to binding arbitration. 15(d) In connection with a disciplinary hearing, the managing official or (1)hearing board may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance and testimony of 16 17witnesses and the production of books, papers, records, and documents as relevant or 18 necessary. 19 (2)The subpoenas may be served without cost in accordance with the 20Maryland Rules that relate to service of process issued by a court. 21Each party may request the managing official or hearing board to (3)22issue a subpoena or order under this subtitle. 23In case of disobedience or refusal to obey a subpoena served under (4)24this subsection, the managing official may apply without cost to the circuit court of a 25county where the subpoenaed party resides or conducts business, for an order to 26compel the attendance and testimony of the witness or the production of the books, 27papers, records, and documents. 28On a finding that the attendance and testimony of the witness or (5)29the production of the books, papers, records, and documents is relevant or necessary: 30 (i) the court may issue without cost an order that requires the attendance and testimony of witnesses or the production of books, papers, records, and 3132documents: and 33 failure to obey the order may be punished by the court as (ii) 34contempt.
