Analysis

Bill Summary:

Permitted Activities

A holder of a Class 9 limited distillery license may establish and operate a plant in Maryland for distilling, rectifying, and bottling brandy, rum, whiskey, alcohol, and neutral spirits if the holder meets specified conditions. A license holder may (1) acquire bulk alcoholic beverages from the holder of a distillery or rectifying license or from the holder of a nonresident dealer's permit; (2) after acquiring an individual storage permit, store products manufactured on the licensed premises; (3) sell and deliver those products to specified entities; (4) sell the products at retail in a manner consistent with the underlying Class D license; (5) conduct guided tours of the licensed premises, as specified; and (6) serve not more than three one-half ounce samples of products to persons who have attained the legal drinking age, participated in a guided tour of the premises, and are present in the portion of the premises used for the limited distillery operation.

Restrictions

A license holder may not (1) apply for or possess a wholesaler's license; (2) sell bottles of the products on that part of the premises used for the distillery operation; (3) distill, rectify, bottle, or sell more than 100,000 gallons of product in a calendar year; (4) sell at retail on the premises of the Class D license, for on- or off-sale consumption, more than 15,500 gallons of the products manufactured under the Class 9 limited distillery license each calendar year; and (5) own, operate, or be affiliated in any manner with another manufacturer.

To distill more than 100,000 gallons per calendar year, a holder of a Class 9 limited distillery license must divest itself of any Class D retail license and obtain a Class 1 manufacturer's (distillery) license.

Current Law:

Class 1 Manufacturer's License (Distillery License)

A Class 1 distillery license is issued by the Comptroller's Office and authorizes the establishment and operation of a plant for distilling brandy, rum, whiskey, alcohol, and neutral spirits. It also authorizes the sale and delivery of those alcoholic beverages, with specified restrictions. The annual license fee is $2,000.

A Class 1 distillery license must be obtained for each trade name and for each distillery in the State. It permits a distiller to manufacture alcoholic beverages in the name of another person or under a trade name, provided that a distillery license has been issued to that other person or under that trade name, as the case may be. It also permits the license holder to (1) acquire bulk alcoholic beverages from the holder of distillery, rectifying, or winery license in the State or from the holder of a nonresident dealer's permit; (2) conduct guided tours; (3) serve samples; and (4) subject to specified restrictions, sell up to three 750-milliliter bottles of products manufactured on the licensed premises, for consumption off the licensed premises, and related merchandise, to persons of legal drinking age who participate in a guided tour of the licensed premises.

Class D Beer, Wine, and Liquor License

In the State, a Class D beer, wine, and liquor license authorizes the license holder to sell or provide beer, wine, and liquor for on- or off-premises consumption as specified on the license. Commonly, such licenses are issued for use in a bar or tavern, and a license may not be issued for any drugstore.

In Anne Arundel County, there are two types of Class D beer, wine, and liquor licenses. The first is a limited license that authorizes the sale of alcoholic beverages for consumption only on the licensed premises; its annual license fee is $1,080. The second authorizes the sale of alcoholic beverages for consumption on or off the licensed premises; its annual license fee is $1,200.

Background: In fiscal 2014, there were 110 Class D beer, wine, and liquor licenses issued in Anne Arundel County. In that same year, there were 20 Class 1 Distillery licenses issued in the State.

State Revenues: General fund revenues from license fees increase by $500 annually for each Class 9 limited distillery license issued by the Comptroller. Alcoholic beverages and sales tax revenues may increase minimally from additional liquor being produced and sold by limited distilleries. Any increase in tax revenues cannot be reliably estimated and depends on the amount of product distilled; however, it is not anticipated to be significant. The sales tax on alcoholic beverages is 9%, and the alcoholic beverages tax on distilled spirits is $1.50 per gallon. If the distilled spirits contain a percentage of alcohol greater than 100 proof, an additional tax of 1.5 cents per gallon is added for each one proof over 100 proof. Revenues from these taxes and licensing fees are deposited into the general fund.

State Expenditures: The Comptroller's Office incurs a one-time expenditure increase of $48,000 in fiscal 2016 to create new license forms and make reporting changes.
