11. Description and Purpose of Project (Limit Length to Visible area)

The New Beginnings Community Development & Empowerment Corporations Introduction to Computers Program of Prince Georges County is a computer literacy program that provides introductory computer training in Microsoft Office applications: Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Access. This program equips youth and adults in learning the basic computer skills to operate effectively in school and the workforce. The purpose of the computer lab project is to design and renovate the lab to include 11 computer stations. This will require electrical wiring for electrical outlets and increased lighting for each station. Additionally, we will construct a second entry into the lab.
