Analysis

Current Law: Subject to limited exceptions, the name of a candidate who is defeated for the nomination for a public office may not appear on the ballot at the next succeeding general election as a candidate for any office.

“Write-in candidate” is defined as an individual whose name will not appear on the ballot but who timely files a certificate of candidacy. “Write-in vote” means a vote cast, in a contest at a general election, for an individual whose name is not on the ballot for that contest. A voter may not cast a write-in vote in a primary election but may write in a name for any office in any general election or special general election.

An individual who seeks election as a write-in candidate must file a certificate of candidacy by the earlier of 5 p.m. on the seventh day before the start of early voting for which the certificate is filed or 7 days after a total expenditure of at least $51 is made to promote the candidacy by a campaign finance entity of the candidate.
