Section 3-520

Annotated Code of Maryland

(2011 Replacement Volume and 2016 Supplement)

Preamble

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court of the United States, in Arizona v. United States, 567 U.S. (2012) held that state and local law enforcement officials may not, without limited and specific authority from the federal government, make a warrantless arrest of an immigrant based on possible removability; and

WHEREAS, The Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution protects an individual from unreasonable searches and seizures and the Supreme Court of the United States has held that warrantless detentions and arrests by law enforcement officials are per se unreasonable except in specific, limited circumstances; now, therefore.”.
