1 (a) The Board of Trustees may designate not more than [four companies, in 2 addition to the company that was designated by a governing board of an employing
3 institution on or before March 1, 1993,] FIVE COMPANIES from which annuity contracts
4 are to be purchased under the program.

5 (b) [(1)] The Board of Trustees shall approve the form and contents of annuity
6 contracts to be offered by a company that is designated by the Board of Trustees under 7 subsection (a) of this section.

8 [(2)] The Board of Trustees may also approve the form and contents of 9 additional types of annuity contracts to be offered for the first time after October 1, 1993,
10 by the company designated by the governing board of an employing institution on or before
11 March 1, 1993.]

12 (c) In making the designation and giving approval under this section, the Board
13 of Trustees shall consider:

14 (1) the nature and extent of the rights and benefits to be provided by the 15 annuity contracts for participating employees and their beneficiaries;

16 (2) the relation of those rights and benefits to the amount of contributions
17 to be made;

18 (3) the suitability of the rights and benefits to the needs of the participating
19 employees and the interests of the employing institutions in the recruitment and retention
20 of participating employees;

21 (4) the ability of the company to provide for suitable rights and benefits
22 under the annuity contracts;

23 (5) the selection of annuity contracts offered by the company;

24 (6) the financial stability of the company and whether the company meets 25 minimum financial criteria, if any, including a minimum net worth requirement, if any,
26 established by the Board of Trustees; and

27 (7) the effect of any fees, commissions, or other charges imposed or 28 collected in connection with an annuity contract.

29 30-211.

30 (a) Before enrolling a participating employee, each designated company shall 31 provide to eligible employees, the Board of Trustees, and the employing institutions any 32 information requested, including [a full disclosure of the entire compensation provided to 33 the senior executives of the designated company, and any] information [requested]

1 regarding the designated company or the annuity contracts offered by the designated 2 company.

3 (b) Each designated company shall provide and pay for all administrative,
4 informational, and counseling services with respect to the annuity contracts offered by the 5 designated company.

6 (c) Each designated company shall cooperate with the employing institution in 7 connection with any concerns that relate to enrollment, termination, or retirement of a
8 participating employee.

9 (d) Each designated company shall disclose to the Board of Trustees all fees,
10 commissions, or other charges the designated company imposes or collects with respect to 11 an annuity contract.

12 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 13 1, 2017.
