9 Article – Health – General
10 Section 16–101(f) and 16–203(a)
11 Annotated Code of Maryland
12 (2015 Replacement Volume and 2016 Supplement)

13 Preamble

14 WHEREAS, Filial support laws have their origins in the Elizabethan Poor Laws, and 15 nearly all states had them at one time; and

16 WHEREAS, States began repealing the laws after the passage of social insurance
17 statutes, including Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid; and

18 WHEREAS, In Maryland, children may still be held responsible for their parents' 19 expenses without any contractual agreement to be held liable; and

20 WHEREAS, Parents are able to incur bills and expenses without their children 21 having a say, but when the bill comes due, the children may be legally responsible for 22 payment; and

23 WHEREAS, Under Title 16, Subtitles 1 and 2 of the Health – General Article of the 24 Annotated Code of Maryland, Maryland's filial law that relates to recipients of services in 25 a facility or program operated or funded by the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene,
26 when a parent is under the care of a State psychiatric hospital and is under age 65, children
27 may be required to reimburse the State for the parent's care out of their monthly income, 28 leaving the children with a bare monthly allowance; and

29 WHEREAS, Current Maryland law requires adult children to pay for food, shelter,
30 care, and clothing for a destitute parent even though the children are unable to control
31 what expenses their parents incur; and

32 WHEREAS, Adult children may be held liable for medical expenses of an indigent 33 parent even though the children have no control over the parent's finances; and

34 WHEREAS, Children are unable to compel a parent to purchase long-term care 35 insurance or to save for future expenses; and

1 WHEREAS, A parent's failure to exercise sound financial discretion should not result
2 in a burden on the parent's children; now, therefore,

3 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND,
4 That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

5 Article – Family Law

6 13–101.

7 [(a)] In this title [the following words have the meanings indicated.

8 (b) “Destitute adult child”], “DESTITUTE ADULT CHILD” means an adult child 9 who:

10 (1) has no means of subsistence; and

11 (2) cannot be self-supporting, due to mental or physical infirmity.

12 [(c) “Destitute parent” means a parent who:

13 (1) has no means of subsistence; and

14 (2) cannot be self-supporting, due to old age or mental or physical 15 infirmity.]

16 13–102.

17 (a) [If a destitute parent is in this State and has an adult child who has or is able 18 to earn sufficient means, the adult child may not neglect or refuse to provide the destitute
19 parent with food, shelter, care, and clothing.

20 (b)] If a destitute adult child is in this State and has a parent who has or is able 21 to earn sufficient means, the parent may not neglect or refuse to provide the destitute adult 22 child with food, shelter, care, and clothing.

23 [(c)] (B) A person who violates [any provision of] this section is guilty of a
24 misdemeanor and on conviction is subject to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment
25 not exceeding 1 year, or both.

26 13–103.

27 (a) A complaint under this section shall be made under oath in writing to a State's 28 Attorney.

29 (b) [An individual may make a complaint that states that:

1 (1) the individual is a destitute parent;

2 (2) an adult child of the destitute parent has or is able to earn means
3 sufficient to provide the destitute parent with necessary food, shelter, care, and clothing;
4 and

5 (3) the adult child has neglected or refused to provide the destitute parent
6 with necessary food, shelter, care, and clothing.

7 (c)] An individual may make a complaint that states that:

8 (1) the individual is a destitute adult child;

9 (2) a parent of the destitute adult child has or is able to earn means 10 sufficient to provide the destitute adult child with necessary food, shelter, care, and 11 clothing; and

12 (3) the parent has neglected or refused to provide the destitute adult child
13 with necessary food, shelter, care, and clothing.

14 13–106.

15 (a) The State’s Attorney may file an information that charges the accused
16 individual with nonsupport of the individual’s [destitute parent or] destitute adult child,
17 based on the complaint.

18 (b) After filing an information, the State’s Attorney may seek to obtain the 19 consent of the accused individual to the entry of a court order under § 13–107 of this title.

20 13–107.

21 (a) With the written consent of the accused individual before charging or trial, or 22 on conviction of the individual under this subtitle, the court shall order the individual:

23 (1) to pay support:

24 (i) to the individual’s [destitute parent or] destitute adult child; or

25 (ii) if the [destitute parent or] destitute adult child is a public charge 26 to the agency that is authorized by law to receive these payments; and

27 (2) to give a bond with securities to this State, conditioned on compliance
28 with the court’s order and any modification of the order.

29 (b) In determining the amount of support, the court shall consider the financial 30 circumstances of the individual.

1 (c) The individual shall pay the support until the [destitute parent or] destitute
2 adult child has other means of adequate support or dies.

3 (d) The court may modify the order.

4 13–108.

5 (a) An individual who fails to give bond after being ordered to give bond under § 6 13–107 of this title is subject to imprisonment until bond is given, not exceeding 1 year.

7 (b) In consideration of the financial circumstances of the accused individual, and 8 on the individual's entering into a recognizance, the court may:

9 (1) suspend imposition of the sentence for failure to give bond; and

10 (2) place the individual on probation for the period that the individual is 11 required to pay support.

12 (c) The recognizance ordered by the court shall be:

13 (1) in the amount that the court directs, with or without security; and

14 (2) on the conditions that:

15 (i) if the individual is summoned to appear before the court, the 16 individual shall appear; and

17 (ii) the individual shall pay support as ordered by the court.

18 (d) If an individual fails to pay support under the court's order, the court may 19 revoke the probation and impose the sentence for failure to give bond.

20 (e) The court may order that any forfeited recognizance be paid:

21 (1) to the individual's [destitute parent or] destitute adult child; or

22 (2) if the individual's [destitute parent or] destitute adult child is a public
23 charge, to the agency that is authorized by law to receive the forfeited recognizance.

24 13–109.

25 The court shall release an individual who is ordered to pay support under this 26 subtitle and any sureties of that individual from the terms of any court order, bond, or 27 recognizance under this subtitle if:

1 (1) the individual or the individual's [destitute parent or] destitute adult
2 child dies;

3 (2) the individual's [destitute parent or] destitute adult child becomes 4 self-supporting; or

5 (3) the individual becomes unable to earn or loses possession of means
6 sufficient to provide for the individual's [destitute parent or] destitute adult child.

7 Article – Health – General

8 16–101.

9 (a) In this title the following words have the meanings indicated.

10 (c) “Chargeable person” means:

11 (1) Any responsible relative;

12 (2) Except for a recipient of services, any other person who is legally 13 responsible for the care of the individual; and

14 (3) Any person who maintains a policy of health insurance under which a 15 recipient of services is insured.

16 (f) “Responsible relative” means:

17 (1) The spouse of a recipient of services; AND

18 (2) The parents of a recipient of services who is a minor[; and 19 (3) The children of a recipient of services].

20 16–102.

21 (a) It is the policy of this State to obligate each recipient of services and, to the 22 extent provided in this title, those legally responsible for the recipient to pay, if financially
23 able, for the cost of care that is received by the recipient of services. Unless otherwise 24 provided by statute, the recipient of services and the chargeable person shall be responsible 25 for payment regardless of whether the recipient of services was admitted voluntarily,
26 involuntarily, or by court order. If the recipient of services is involuntarily admitted to a 27 public facility and released after evaluation, for failure to meet the standards for 28 involuntary commitment, the recipient of services or chargeable person shall not be 29 responsible for the cost of care.

1 (b) The total cost of care of each recipient of services is, in the first instance, the
2 responsibility of the recipient of services and, as provided in this title, the chargeable
3 person. Any uncollectible costs for services provided to the recipient shall become the 4 responsibility of this State.

5 16–203.

6 (a) (1) The cost of care of a recipient of services shall be determined in 7 accordance with the charges for services set under § 16–201 of this subtitle.

8 (2) Except as otherwise provided in this title:

9 (i) Payment for this cost of care shall be made by the recipient of 10 services or a chargeable person;

11 (ii) Their liability for this payment is joint and several; and

12 (iii) The insured or policyholder may not withhold the payment and 13 shall assign to the Department any benefits available under the policy for services rendered
14 by the Department to any insured covered by the policy.

15 (3) Liability may not be imposed under this title on any spouse [or child]
16 of a recipient of services, if the spouse [or child] has been abandoned by the recipient of 17 services. The Department shall adopt rules and regulations that define abandonment for 18 the purposes of this subsection.

19 (4) Liability may not be imposed under this title on a responsible relative
20 if any responsible relative has been the victim of sexual abuse, physical abuse, or a crime
21 of violence as defined in § 14–101 of the Criminal Law Article perpetrated by the recipient
22 of services. The Department shall adopt regulations that define “sexual abuse, physical 23 abuse, or a crime of violence” as defined in § 14–101 of the Criminal Law Article for the 24 purposes of this paragraph.

25 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect
26 October 1, 2017.
