A BILL ENTITLED

1 AN ACT concerning

2 State Highways – Dedication – Henrietta Lacks Way

3 FOR the purpose of requiring the State Highway Administration to dedicate a certain 4 portion of Dundalk Avenue in Baltimore County as Henrietta Lacks Way; and 5 generally relating to State highway dedications.

6 BY adding to

7 Article – Transportation

8 Section 8–659

9 Annotated Code of Maryland

10 (2015 Replacement Volume and 2016 Supplement)

11 Preamble

12 WHEREAS, Henrietta Lacks was a tobacco farmer born on August 1, 1920 in 13 Roanoke, Virginia; and

14 WHEREAS, She died on October 4, 1951 at the age of 31 from cervical cancer, and 15 was survived by her husband David and five children; and

16 WHEREAS, She was diagnosed with the cancer at Johns Hopkins Hospital in 1951 17 and the cancer took only 8 months to end her life; and

18 WHEREAS, Her tumorous cells were harvested for research without her knowledge 19 at Johns Hopkins Hospital; and

EXPLANATION: CAPITALS INDICATE MATTER ADDED TO EXISTING LAW.

[Brackets] indicate matter deleted from existing law.

1 WHEREAS, Researchers were astonished that these cells continued to live for a long 2 time outside of the body in petri dishes and reproduced rapidly, dramatically increasing 3 their usefulness to researchers; and

4 WHEREAS, Using the first two letters of each of her names, the cells became known 5 as “HeLa” cells, the first immortal human cell line in history; and

6 WHEREAS, HeLa cells have furthered the understanding of cancer, cloning, gene 7 mapping, in vitro fertilization, HIV/AIDS, and chemotherapy, traveled into space, been 8 exposed to nuclear testing, helped Jonas Salk develop the polio vaccine for human use, and 9 been instrumental in creating the cancer drug tomoxiphin; and

10 WHEREAS, The HeLa cells were sold and became responsible for countless 11 treatments and experiments that resulted in billions of dollars in earnings while 12 Henrietta’s family languished in poverty in Turner Station, a small community in Dundalk, 13 Maryland; and

14 WHEREAS, These events have raised legal and moral issues about patient consent 15 and the rights of an individual to the genetic material and tissue of the individual; and

16 WHEREAS, The National Institutes of Health has entered into an agreement with 17 the Lacks family that gives the family some control over access to Henrietta Lacks’ genome 18 data; and

19 WHEREAS, HeLa cells continue to grow and divide to this day, facilitating further 20 significant medical and scientific advances; now, therefore,

21 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND,
22 That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

23 Article – Transportation

24 8–659.

25 THE ADMINISTRATION SHALL DEDICATE THE PORTION OF DUNDALK AVENUE
26 IN BALTIMORE COUNTY BETWEEN THE 3400 BLOCK AND 3800 BLOCK, INCLUSIVE, 27 AS HENRIETTA LACKS WAY.

28 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect
29 October 1, 2017.
