| The Southern Maryland Carousel Group, Inc. began its "Kids for the Carousel Program" with permission from the Charles County School Board, for the purpose of getting the children involved in learning about the carousel, how a carousel works, and most important how the horses are put together. We accomplished this through hands on demonstrations and going to career and fun days at their respective schools. We also talked to them about having their mascot represented on the Carousel. Thus far we have five schools in Charles County and one in St. Mary's County who have raised funds to have their mascot on the carousel. We have made direct contact with approximately 2,000 children in the schools. The Carousel group has put on demonstrations for the Lions Clubs of Charles County, the Rotary Club, Antique Arts Association, Nanjemoy Days, Charles County Fair, St Mary's County Fair, Waldorf Moms Club, the Greater Waldorf Jaycees, Celtic Festival, and Compassionate Friends. The Lions Clubs of Charles County adopted a Lion, Compassionate Friends adopted a horse to honor their lost children and the Waldorf Jaycees have adopted two handicapped accessible chariots. A member of the Rotary Club adopted two horses for their family. The Antique Arts Association adopted Charlie the Rooster. We had contact with over 5,000 people at these events. Our carving center is open to the public; we have had numerous visitors come from all over the country to watch the process of building an animal. We even had channel 5 News come in and spend an entire morning filming live TV coverage with a well known TV personality. In total 17 animals and two chariots have been adopted. The Southern Maryland Carousel Group is continually educating the children in our school system. Through a grant we received from the Charles County Historic Trust, Inc., we were able to produce a video of "Memories of Marshall Hall" and also printed several thousand copies of a brochure about Marshall Hall. This publication has several math problems for children to solve and also a carousel animal for the children to color. Prior to this no history brochure existed. Currently, we have a GO FUND ME account set-up and have enhanced our adoption program to make it much easier for folks to adopt animals. | |
