28 INDICATED.

29 (B) “UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE” MEANS AN ACT THAT IS

1 PROHIBITED UNDER § 26–503 OF THE EDUCATION ARTICLE.

2 (c) “UNLAWFUL employment practice” means an act that is prohibited under § 3 20–606 of this title.

4 20–1006.

5 (a) On the making of a finding under § 20–1005(c)(2) of this subtitle that an
6 agreement to remedy and eliminate the discrimination cannot be reached, the entire file, 7 including the complaint and any findings, shall be certified to the general counsel of the 8 Commission.

9 (b) The Executive Director of the Commission shall cause a written notice to be 10 issued and served in the name of the Commission, together with a copy of the complaint,
11 requiring the respondent to answer the charges of the complaint at a public hearing:

12 (1) before an administrative law judge at a time and place certified in the 13 notice; or

14 (2) if the complaint alleges an unlawful employment practice OR AN 15 UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE, in a civil action elected under § 20–1007 of this 16 subtitle.

17 20–1007.

18 (a) (1) When a complaint alleging an unlawful employment practice OR AN
19 UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE is issued and served under § 20–1006 of this subtitle,
20 a complainant or respondent may elect to have the claims asserted in the complaint
21 determined in a civil action brought by the Commission on the complainant’s behalf, if:

22 (i) the Commission has found probable cause to believe the 23 respondent has engaged in or is engaging in an unlawful employment practice OR AN 24 UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE; and

25 (ii) there is a failure to reach an agreement to remedy and eliminate
26 the unlawful employment practice OR THE UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE.

27 (2) An election under paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be made within 28 30 days after the complainant or respondent receives service under § 20–1006(b) of this
29 subtitle.

30 (3) If an election is not made under paragraph (1) of this subsection, the 31 Commission shall provide an opportunity for a hearing as provided under § 20–1008(a) of 32 this subtitle.

33 (b) When a complaint alleging an unlawful employment practice OR AN

1 UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE is issued and served under § 20–1006 of this subtitle,
2 the Commission may elect to have the claims asserted in the complaint determined in a
3 civil action brought on the Commission’s own behalf, if:

4 (1) the Commission has found probable cause to believe the respondent has 5 engaged in or is engaging in an unlawful employment practice OR AN UNLAWFUL
6 EDUCATION PRACTICE; and

7 (2) there is a failure to reach an agreement to remedy and eliminate the 8 unlawful employment practice OR THE UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE.

9 (c) (1) If a complainant or respondent makes an election under subsection (a)
10 of this section, that party shall give notice of the election to the Commission and to all other 11 complainants and respondents.

12 (2) If the Commission makes an election under subsection (b) of this 13 section, the Commission shall give notice of the election to all complainants and 14 respondents.

15 20–1009.

16 (a) If, after reviewing all of the evidence, the administrative law judge finds that 17 the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory act, the administrative law judge shall:

18 (1) issue a decision and order stating the judge’s findings of fact and 19 conclusions of law; and

20 (2) issue and cause to be served on the respondent an order requiring the 21 respondent to:

22 (i) cease and desist from engaging in the discriminatory acts; and

23 (ii) take affirmative action to effectuate the purposes of the 24 applicable subtitle of this title.

25 (b) (1) If the respondent is found to have engaged in or to be engaging in an 26 unlawful employment practice OR AN UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE charged in the 27 complaint, the remedy may include:

28 (i) enjoining the respondent from engaging in the discriminatory
29 act;

30 (ii) ordering appropriate affirmative relief, including the 31 reinstatement or hiring of employees, with or without back pay;

32 (iii) awarding compensatory damages; or

1 (iv) ordering any other equitable relief that the administrative law
2 judge considers appropriate.

3 (2) Compensatory damages awarded under this subsection are in addition 4 to:

5 (i) back pay or interest on back pay that the complainant may 6 recover under any other provision of law; and

7 (ii) any other equitable relief that a complainant may recover under 8 any other provision of law.

9 (3) The sum of the amount of compensatory damages awarded to each
10 complainant under this subsection for future pecuniary losses, emotional pain, suffering,
11 inconvenience, mental anguish, loss of enjoyment of life, or nonpecuniary losses, may not 12 exceed:

13 (i) $50,000, if the respondent employs not fewer than 15 and not 14 more than 100 employees in each of 20 or more calendar weeks in the current or preceding
15 calendar year;

16 (ii) $100,000, if the respondent employs not fewer than 101 and not
17 more than 200 employees in each of 20 or more calendar weeks in the current or preceding
18 calendar year;

19 (iii) $200,000, if the respondent employs not fewer than 201 and not
20 more than 500 employees in each of 20 or more calendar weeks in the current or preceding 21 calendar year; and

22 (iv) $300,000, if the respondent employs not fewer than 501
23 employees in each of 20 or more calendar weeks in the current or preceding calendar year.

24 (4) If back pay is awarded under paragraph (1) of this subsection, the 25 award shall be reduced by any interim earnings or amounts earnable with reasonable 26 diligence by the person discriminated against.

27 (5) In addition to any other relief authorized by this subsection, a 28 complainant may recover back pay for up to 2 years preceding the filing of the complaint,
29 where the unlawful employment practice that has occurred during the complaint filing 30 period is similar or related to an unlawful employment practice with regard to 31 discrimination in compensation that occurred outside the time for filing a complaint.

32 (c) (1) (i) Except as provided in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, if the 33 respondent is found to have engaged in or to be engaging in a discriminatory act other than 34 an unlawful employment practice OR AN UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE, in addition 35 to an award of civil penalties as provided in § 20–1016 of this subtitle, nonmonetary relief
36 may be granted to the complainant.

1 (ii) An order may not be issued that substantially affects the cost,
2 level, or type of any transportation services.

3 (2) (i) In cases involving transportation services that are supported
4 fully or partially with funds from the Maryland Department of Transportation, an order
5 may not be issued that would require costs, level, or type of transportation services different
6 from or exceeding those required to meet U.S. Department of Transportation regulations
7 adopted under 29 U.S.C. § 794.

8 (ii) An order issued in violation of subparagraph (i) of this paragraph 9 is not enforceable under § 20–1011 of this subtitle.

10 (d) If, after reviewing all of the evidence, the administrative law judge finds that 11 the respondent has not engaged in an alleged discriminatory act, the administrative law 12 judge shall:

13 (1) state findings of fact and conclusions of law; and

14 (2) issue an order dismissing the complaint.

15 (e) Unless a timely appeal is filed with the Commission in accordance with the 16 Commission's regulations, a decision and order issued by the administrative law judge
17 under this section shall become the final order of the Commission.

18 20–1012.

19 (a) Within 60 days after an election is made under § 20–1007 of this subtitle, the 20 Commission shall file a civil action in the circuit court for the county where the alleged 21 unlawful employment practice OR UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE occurred.

22 (b) If the court finds that an unlawful employment practice OR AN UNLAWFUL 23 EDUCATION PRACTICE occurred, the court may provide the remedies specified in §
24 20–1009(b) of this subtitle.

25 (c) If the Commission seeks compensatory damages under this section:

26 (1) any party may demand a trial by jury; and

27 (2) the court may not inform the jury of the limitations on compensatory
28 damages imposed under § 20–1009(b)(3) of this subtitle.

29 20–1013.

30 (a) In addition to the right to make an election under § 20–1007 of this subtitle, a 31 complainant may bring a civil action against the respondent alleging an unlawful 32 employment practice OR AN UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE, if:

1 (1) the complainant initially filed a timely administrative charge or a
2 complaint under federal, State, or local law alleging an unlawful employment practice OR
3 AN UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE by the respondent;

4 (2) at least 180 days have elapsed since the filing of the administrative 5 charge or complaint; and

6 (3) the civil action is filed within 2 years after the alleged unlawful 7 employment practice OR UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE occurred.

8 (b) A civil action under this section shall be filed in the circuit court for the county
9 where the alleged unlawful employment practice OR UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE
10 occurred.

11 (c) The filing of a civil action under this section automatically terminates any 12 proceeding before the Commission based on the underlying administrative complaint and 13 any amendment to the complaint.

14 (d) If the court finds that an unlawful employment practice OR AN UNLAWFUL
15 EDUCATION PRACTICE occurred, the court may provide the remedies specified in §
16 20–1009(b) of this subtitle.

17 (e) (1) In addition to the relief authorized under subsection (d) of this section, 18 the court may award punitive damages, if:

19 (i) the respondent is not a governmental unit or political 20 subdivision; and

21 (ii) the court finds that the respondent has engaged in or is engaging
22 in an unlawful employment practice OR AN UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE with 23 actual malice.

24 (2) If the court awards punitive damages, the sum of the amount of 25 compensatory damages awarded to each complainant under subsection (d) of this section 26 and the amount of punitive damages awarded under this subsection may not exceed the 27 applicable limitation established under § 20–1009(b)(3) of this subtitle.

28 (f) If a complainant seeks compensatory or punitive damages under this section:

29 (1) any party may demand a trial by jury; and

30 (2) the court may not inform the jury of the limitations on compensatory
31 and punitive damages imposed under § 20–1009(b)(3) of this subtitle.

32 (g) When appropriate and to the extent authorized under law, in a dispute arising

1 under this part, in which the complainant seeks compensatory or punitive damages, the 2 parties are encouraged to use alternative means of dispute resolution, including settlement
3 negotiations or mediation.

4 20–1017.

5 (a) At any time after a complaint has been filed, if the Commission believes that 6 a civil action is necessary to preserve the status of the parties or to prevent irreparable 7 harm from the time the complaint is filed until the time of the final disposition of the 8 complaint, the Commission may bring an action to obtain a temporary injunction.

9 (b) The action shall be brought in the circuit court for the county where:

10 (1) the place of public accommodation that is the subject of the alleged 11 discriminatory act is located;

12 (2) the unlawful employment practice is alleged to have occurred or to be 13 occurring; [or]

14 (3) the dwelling that is the subject of the alleged discriminatory housing
15 practice is located; OR

16 (4) THE UNLAWFUL EDUCATION PRACTICE IS ALLEGED TO HAVE 17 OCCURRED OR TO BE OCCURRING.

18 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect
19 October 1, 2018.
