	6 SENATE BILL 1068
1	(2011 Replacement Volume and 2017 Supplement)
2	Preamble
3 4 5 6	WHEREAS, The Maryland Financial Consumer Protection Commission was creat by statute in 2017 to monitor changes in Washington and on Wall Street and ma- recommendations for action to the Governor, the General Assembly of Maryland, and to Maryland Congressional delegation as necessary to safeguard Maryland consumers; and	ke he
7 8	WHEREAS, The commission held two public hearings with testimony from witnesses and conducted significant research; and	11
9 10 11 12 13	WHEREAS, The 2008 international financial crisis was years in the making. Whe it erupted, it exposed the deficiencies in prior public policies and regulatory structures at clearly showed that policies and practices that fostered, and in some cases, encourage excessive risk taking were detrimental to the economy in general and particularly to the American consumers who were, in many cases, victimized by bad financial practices; and	nd ed, he
14 15 16	WHEREAS, Congress and the President, recalling the lessons of earlier financicrises, came together to update the rules of the road for consumer protection and the financial markets; and
17 18 19 20	WHEREAS, To protect the American economy, Congress passed the Dodd-FrankWall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 (Dodd-Frank) along wisimplementing regulations adopted by the federal financial and consumer regulato agencies; and	ith
21 22 23	WHEREAS, In the years since the passage of these major reforms, along wisignificant monetary policy easing and fiscal stimulus, credit is flowing and the economias significantly recovered; and
24 25 26	WHEREAS, Corporate and industrial loans as well as overall loans in the banking sector have grown significantly since pre-crisis levels, 35% and 31% respectively, and the financial system is back to pre-crisis levels of activity; and	_
27 28	WHEREAS, Bank profits were at record levels in 2016 and, in the third quarter 2017, the banking industry's average return on assets was at a 10–year high; and	of

(including loan servicing and foreclosures), debt collectors, and credit reporting; and

WHEREAS, The new Administration, working with Congress, has made efforts to loosen a variety of the postcrisis reforms, including personnel appointments, use of the

- 1 Congressional Review Act, Congress's legislative efforts, and regulatory and administrative actions; and
- WHEREAS, In light of the retrenchment on the federal level, the commission recommended that Maryland take steps to further protect consumers and investors; and
- WHEREAS, Many consumer protection and financial-sector issues must be addressed at the federal level; and
- WHEREAS, The General Assembly of Maryland urges the Maryland Congressional delegation remain focused on the need to maintain strong and balanced financial consumer protection laws and regulations at the federal level; and
- WHEREAS, The General Assembly of Maryland recommends that the delegation continue to support the independence of CFPB; and
- WHEREAS, The General Assembly of Maryland further recommends that the delegation support full funding for crucial market regulators, including the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission; and
- WHEREAS, The General Assembly of Maryland requests that the delegation regularly weigh in on behalf of everyday Marylanders with comment letters to and oversight of the financial and consumer regulators to maintain critical financial consumer protections at the federal level as well as preserve the State's authority to protect its citizens locally through, for instance, opposition to the OCC special Fintech charter; and
- WHEREAS, While some safeguards can only be addressed in Washington, particularly with regards to protecting against systemic risk and the failure of the largest banks, other states are taking actions to fill new gaps in financial consumer protection; now, therefore,

1	[(6)] (7) The presence of contradictory information in the consumer's file
2	does not in and of itself constitute reasonable grounds for believing the dispute is frivolous
3	or irrelevant.
4	[(b)] (C) If a consumer reporting agency finds that a dispute is frivolous or
5	irrelevant, the agency within 7 business days shall mail:
6	(1) Written notice of the finding, including the reasons for the finding, to
7	the consumer; and
8	(2) A statement of the rights of the consumer under this subtitle.
9	(1) If the reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute, the consumer
10	may file a brief statement setting forth the nature of the dispute.
11	(2) The consumer reporting agency may limit statements to not more than 12	100 words if it provides the consumer with assistance in writing a clear summary of the
13	dispute.
14	(d) (E) Whenever a statement of a dispute is filed, unless there is reasonable
15	grounds to believe that it is frivolous or irrelevant, the consumer reporting agency shall, in
16	any subsequent consumer report containing the information in question, clearly note that
17	it is disputed by the consumer and provide either the consumer's statement or a clear and
18	accurate codification or summary of it.

22 23 24	(ii) Requests the placement of a security freeze if the consumer has not previously requested the placement of a security freeze from the consumer reporting agency.]
25 26 27	(j) At any time that a consumer is entitled to receive a summary of rights under § 609 of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act or § 14–1206 of this subtitle, the following notice shall be included:
28	"NOTICE
29 30 31	You have a right, under § 14–1212.1 of the Commercial Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, to place a security freeze on your credit report. The security freeze will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing your credit report or any information derived from your credit report without your express authorization. The purpose of a security freeze is to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name

without your consent. A CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCY MAY NOT CHARGE YOU A FEE FOR ANY SERVICE RELATING TO A SECURITY FREEZE, INCLUDING FOR ANY PLACEMENT, TEMPORARY LIFT, OR REMOVAL OF A SECURITY FREEZE.

You may elect to have a consumer reporting agency place a security freeze on your credit report by written request sent by certified mail or by electronic mail or the Internet if the consumer reporting agency provides a secure electronic connection. The consumer reporting agency must place a security freeze on your credit report within 3 business days after your request is received. Within 5 business days after a security freeze is placed on your credit report, you will be provided with a unique personal identification number or password to use if you want to remove the security freeze or temporarily lift the security freeze to release your credit report to a specific person or for a specific period of time. You also will receive information on the procedures for removing or temporarily lifting a security freeze.

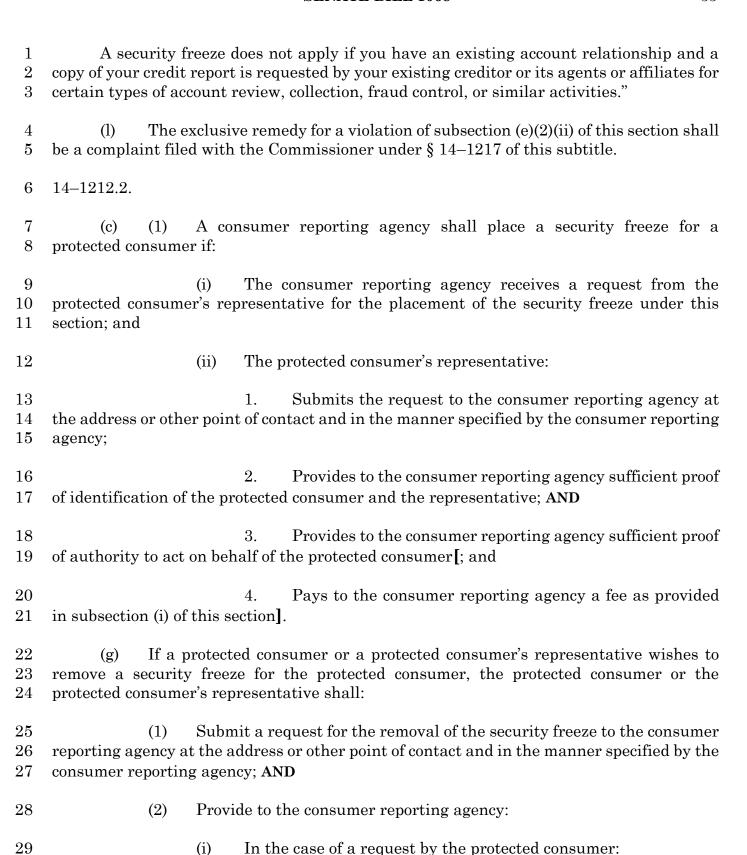

If you want to temporarily lift the security freeze on your credit report, you must contact the consumer reporting agency and provide all of the following:

- (1) The unique personal identification number or password provided by the consumer reporting agency;
 - (2) The proper identifying information to verify your identity; and
- 19 (3) The proper information regarding the person who is to receive the credit report 20 or the period of time for which the credit report is to be available to users of the credit 21 report.

A consumer reporting agency must comply with a request to temporarily lift a security freeze on a credit report within 3 business days after the request is received, or within 15 minutes for certain requests. A consumer reporting agency must comply with a request to remove a security freeze on a credit report within 3 business days after the request is received.

If you are actively seeking credit, you should be aware that the procedures involved in lifting a security freeze may slow your own applications for credit. You should plan ahead and lift a security freeze, either completely if you are seeking credit from a number of sources, or just for a specific creditor if you are applying only to that creditor, a few days before actually applying for new credit.

[A consumer reporting agency may charge a reasonable fee not exceeding $5 for each placement, temporary lift, or removal of a security freeze. However, a consumer reporting agency may not charge any fee to a consumer who, at the time of a request to place, temporarily lift, or remove a security freeze, presents to the consumer reporting agency a police report of alleged identity fraud against the consumer or an identity theft passport. A consumer reporting agency also may not charge any fee to a consumer for the first placement of a security freeze with the consumer reporting agency.]
