Analysis

Bill Summary: The task force must:

- study the current revenue structure of the State, including income, sales, corporate, motor fuel, excise, and property taxes; tax exemptions and credits; and fees;
- review the academic and economic research on state and local tax policy to assist in the overall assessment of efficacy, fairness, and competitiveness of the current revenue structure of the State;
- review the revenue structure of neighboring jurisdictions for the purpose of evaluating the regional competitiveness of the State's tax structure;
- consider the nature of the State's economy and the importance of service and professional businesses to economic development;
- consider whether or not the current revenue structure of the State should be reformed, modified, and modernized, including by considering (1) reforms that would mitigate any adverse effects on State taxpayers that are the result of the federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act; (2) the imposition of a payroll tax, carried interest tax, or remote sales tax in order to offset reductions to the State's income tax and State and local property taxes; and (3) the encouragement of charitable contributions by taxpayers to State institutions; and
- make recommendations regarding changes to the State's revenue structure that (1) promote job growth and economic development; (2) ensure fairness, simplicity, and transparency; (3) provide a stable, balanced, and reliable revenue stream, while not reducing services; and (4) create a business-friendly environment.

Current Law/Background: Taxes are the primary source of revenues in Maryland. Individual income taxes are the single largest source of revenue, followed by the sales and use tax and transportation taxes (motor fuel tax, motor carrier tax, and motor vehicle excise tax). The balance of State tax revenues is derived from the corporate income tax and other business taxes, property and property transfer taxes, tobacco and alcoholic beverage taxes, estate and inheritance taxes, and miscellaneous taxes.

State Fiscal Effect: General fund expenditures increase by $128,300 in fiscal 2019 and by $154,500 in fiscal 2020. This estimate reflects the cost of hiring one contractual staff person at the Comptroller's Office with experience in taxation and economics to carry out the requirements of the bill, including an evaluation of the State's tax and fee system. The estimate includes a salary, fringe benefits, one-time start-up costs, and operating expenses for the duration of the task force. Expense reimbursements for task force members are assumed to be minimal and absorbable with existing resources.
