Ways and Means

Property Tax Credit – Surviving Spouse of Veteran

This bill alters the eligibility criteria of a local option property tax credit for specified members of the U.S. Armed Forces by adding the surviving spouse of the retired service member as an eligible recipient of the property tax credit. However, to be eligible for the property tax credit, the surviving spouse cannot be remarried. The bill takes effect June 1, 2018, and applies to taxable years beginning after June 30, 2018.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: County and municipal property tax revenues may decrease beginning in FY 2019 to the extent that local jurisdictions grant the property tax credit and the changes to existing eligibility requirements result in additional individuals becoming eligible for the property tax credit. Local expenditures are not affected.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: Chapter 498 of 2016 authorized local governments to grant, by law, a property tax credit for a dwelling owned by (1) an individual who is at least 65 years old and has lived in the same dwelling for at least the preceding 40 years or (2) a retired member of the U.S. Armed Forces who is at least 65 years old. The amount of the property tax credit may not exceed 20% of the county or municipal property tax imposed on the property and may be granted for up to five years.

Local governments may provide, by law, for (1) the maximum assessed value of a dwelling that is eligible for the tax credit; (2) additional eligibility criteria for the tax credit; (3) regulations and procedures for the application and uniform processing of requests for the tax credit; and (4) any other provision necessary to carry out the tax credit.

Chapter 184 of 2017 altered the eligibility criteria of the property tax credit by specifying that eligible individuals must be members of the uniformed services of the United States as defined by 10 U.S.C. Section 101, the military reserves, or the National Guard.

Similar Property Tax Credits for Elderly Individuals

Local governments are authorized to grant a property tax credit against the county or municipal property tax imposed on real property that is owned and used as the principal residence of an individual who is at least 65 years old and of limited income. Local governments are authorized to provide for the amount and duration of the tax credit, additional eligibility criteria for the tax credit, regulations and procedures for the application and uniform processing of requests for the tax credit, and any other provisions necessary.

Local Fiscal Effect: County and municipal property tax revenues may decrease beginning in fiscal 2019, to the extent that local jurisdictions grant the property tax credit, and the changes to existing eligibility requirements result in additional individuals becoming eligible for the property tax credit. Depending on the jurisdiction, the revenue decrease may be significant. The amount of the revenue decrease depends on the number of eligible homeowners, the value of residential property tax assessments, and local property tax rates.

As a point of reference, Exhibit 1 shows the average residential property tax assessments and property tax rates for each county. Additional information on local property tax rates and property assessments can be found in Chapters 4 and 5 of the Overview of Maryland Local Governments report.
