Analysis

Current Law: Sixteen official commemorative days, six months, and one week are recognized in State law, as shown in Exhibit 1. The Governor also must issue a proclamation each year encouraging citizens and other individuals to observe a moment of silence at 3:00 p.m. on Memorial Day to unite in remembrance and commemorate the heroic acts and efforts of Marylanders who have served and died in the U.S. Armed Forces.

Background: The First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution guarantees the freedom of the press, as does Article 40 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights. In 1993, the United Nations General Assembly declared May 3 as World Press Freedom Day. According to the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization, the day serves as an occasion to raise awareness of violations of press freedom around the world and to encourage initiatives to strengthen press freedom.

In June 2018, a shooting in the Capital Gazette newsroom in Annapolis claimed the lives of five Capital Gazette staff members. According to the Committee to Protect Journalists, as of March 2019, 1,337 journalists have been killed in the United States since 1992.
