29 (2) (i) There is a rebuttable presumption that the amount of child 30 support which would result from the application of the child support guidelines set forth in 31 this subtitle is the correct amount of child support to be awarded.

1 The presumption may be rebutted by evidence that the (ii) 2 application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case. 3 In determining whether the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case, the court may consider ANY FINANCIAL 4 5 CONSIDERATIONS: 6 1. [the terms of any] SPECIFIED IN AN existing separation 7 or property settlement agreement or court order, including: 8 any provisions for payment of mortgages [or], marital debts, [payment of] OR college education expenses[,]; 9 10 В. the terms of any use and possession order or right to 11 occupy the family home under an agreement[,]; AND C. 12 any direct payments made for the benefit of the children 13 required by THE agreement or order, or any other financial considerations set out in an 14 existing separation or property settlement agreement or court order; and : OR Ithe presence in the household of either parent of other 15 2. 16 children to whom that parent owes a duty of support and the expenses for whom that parent 17 is directly contributing THAT THE COURT DEEMS RELEVANT TO THE BEST INTERESTS 18 OF THE CHILD WHO IS THE SUBJECT OF THE CHILD SUPPORT ORDER. 19 The presumption may not be rebutted solely on the basis of 20 evidence of the presence in the household of either parent of other children to whom that 21parent owes a duty of support and the expenses for whom that parent is directly 22contributing. 23 (v)1. If the court determines that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case, the court shall make a 2425written finding or specific finding on the record stating the reasons for departing from the guidelines. 26 27 2. The court's finding shall state: 28 Α. the amount of child support that would have been required 29 under the guidelines; В. how the order varies from the guidelines; 30  $\mathbf{C}$ . 31 how the finding serves the best interests of the child WHO 32 IS THE SUBJECT OF THE ORDER: and
